

PULIDO-WALKER

MARK PULIDO

Biography

Mark, an advisor, investor, and philanthropist, brings nationally recognized expertise in healthcare and technology with more than three decades of executive leadership experience to Pulido~Walker. He has led several of the most prominent healthcare and technology companies in the world. He is the former CEO & Chairman of the Board of ABILITY Network, a leader in cloud-based solutions for the provider and payer marketplace acquired by Inovalon in 2018. He continues to serve as a Corporate Board Member of Inovalon.

Prior to his role at ABILITY, Mark focused on private equity as an industry executive at Freeman Spogli & Company. Previously he served as Chairman & CEO of BenefitPoint, a Sequoia backed employee benefits technology company. Prior to that he led several of the most prominent healthcare and technology companies in the world. Mark served as President and CEO and a director of McKesson Corporation, a Fortune 15 healthcare services and information technology company; President and Chief Executive Officer of Novartis Pharmaceuticals USA (formerly Sandoz), a research-based pharmaceutical manufacturer; and Chairman and CEO of Red Line Healthcare, a specialty long term care distribution and medical billing company.

He previously served as Chairman of the Board of Quidel Corporation, a developer, manufacturer, and marketer of point of care diagnostic testing solutions and on the boards of the Charles Schwab Corporation, a financial services company; Imation Corporation, a technology company; Sunrise Medical, a home medical equipment manufacturer; and Smile Brands Group, a dental practice management company.

Mark has been a National Trustee of Boys & Girls Clubs of America and is past President of the Board of Trustees of The Bishop's School, La Jolla, CA, a leading independent school. He previously chaired the Grants Committee of the Rancho Santa Fe Community Foundation and is currently a member of The Napa Valley Vintners (NVV) Environmental Stewardship Committee.